About the Program

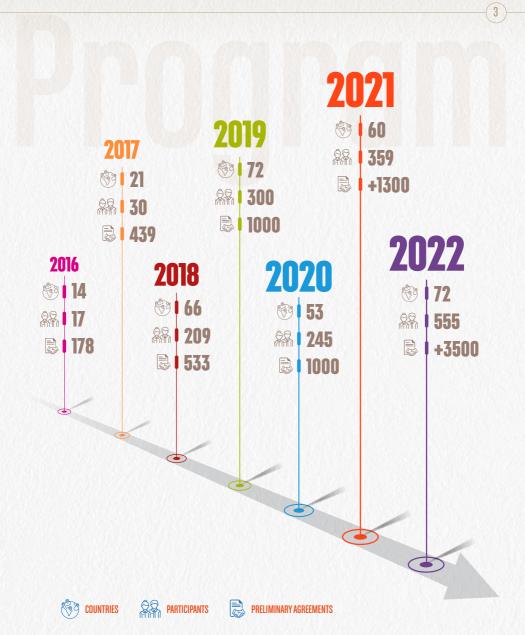

Preparations are underway for the "8th Istanbul Publishing Fellowship Program", which will be held on a mixed basis due to the COVID-19 pandemic, which affected the entire world.

Applications For the International Istanbul Fellowship Program will be collected between 24 October 2022 - 16 December 2022. The program is organized by Turkish Press and Publishers Copyright & Licencing Society with the support of the Ministry of Culture and Tourism. Every year, the program brings together publishers from around the world in Istanbul for copyright and translation negotiations. This year, some of the meetings will be held face to face, and some evets will be held online. The program will be held on 15-16-17 March 2023 through a mixture of live and online events.

Last year, Hungary was chosen as the focus country of the 7th Istanbul Publishing Fellowship Program. Held for the first time in 2021, Istanbul Copyright Awards is designed for foreign publishers that contribute to the translation of the unique intellectual, artistic and cultural production of the Turkish publishing industry into other languages and to the promotion of these works worldwide. It is aimed to support the copyright sales of Turkish publications and to increase the awareness of the Turkish publishing sector and to develop cultural cooperation with other countries. Last year, 86 publishing houses From 42 countries applied to the Istanbul Copyright Awards with 2.232 books. This year, again, Istanbul Copyright Awards and Focus Country studies will take place under the Istanbul Publishing Fellowship brand.
