Hells (Isaiah 14:9-11) is real, abstain from sin, and be free from all sort of immoral practices and stay righteous in Christ Jesus. Always be steadfast in prayers, you must pray without ceasing because the end time is very near, and the coming of the Lord is at hand.

Take Christ Jesus as your Saviour now and the Lord over your life. He loves and needs you. He wants you to be with him in his eternal resting place together with his angels.

For that place, there is no sadness, no cry, and no pain for it is a place of eternal joy without sin. Remember your creator whiles you are young, for you do not know the day; He will descend to give his rewards and judgment to all humanity. He is the creator of the universe.

He is the lord of all host; He still loves you no matter how you are. If only you are ready to allow him to come to dine with you. It was because of that He has to sacrifice his only begotten Son so you might have eternal life in his kingdom. He died for all, not for some specific people.

"Be assured that hell is real, and I created it for Satan and his demons. If you follow him and allow him to take charge in your life and leads you astray, you would follow him to his eternal resting place.

It is a place of crying and gnashing of teeth, and I prepared it for the disobedient and prideful ones.

Be assured that, I the lord resist the proud and gives more grace to the humble and if you refuse to forgive others their trespasses, I will not forgive you on the final day. I, the Lord, would also not forgive you on the judgment day because the unforgiving son and daughter have no place in my kingdom.

Remember that unforgiving heart generates hatred, pride, jealousy, and long-suffering.

I the Lord have said the wages of sin is death, but my gift for you is eternal life in my kingdom. I have chosen you before eternity and always be patience in all circumstances. Always put on the garment of humility, and I, the Lord, will give you more grace to uphold the faith, which is pleasing to the father.

Never lose hope and faith in me, for I, the Lord shall pour unto you the spirit of wisdom and understanding above your fellow friends. I repeat, the accuser, your enemy, is looking for someone like you to devour and tear apart your purpose in life, and it is impossible to overcome if you abide in me.

Put overall armour of God on by reading and meditating upon the word of God. Be consistent in fasting and prayers days and nights. Bind the works of the enemy, and I the Lord would intervene by allowing my great angels in the heavenly places to fight for you.

For ten thousand shall be on your side, and the enemy works shall come into vain. Believe in me never lose faith in me because I am pleased by your faith and as you have the confidence in me, Let your works manifest in the eyes of men so it shall glorify my name in my sanctuary.

I shall give you power and authority to trample upon scorpions and serpents; I have already ordained it unto my servants. There is no one, I mean no one who can quench the blessing and the anointing I the Lord have poured on you.

Remember that I have given many gifts to my children, of which they cannot exercise because they look upon themselves but not upon me. They rather trust in themselves rather than me.

Many are also not using the gift I the Lord gave, because of their loved ones, because of where they find themselves. The enemy has blinded them with earthly wisdom.

They have eyes but cannot see; they have ears but cannot hear, but remember that I the Lord shall take away the gift and talent from them and give unto them that are doing the work. My wrath shall come upon all whom I entrusted my spirit.

They misused my power and became money dealers. They chose money and other evil desires than to allow my works to be known to my sheep's and lambs.

I am coming this time with wrath and anger, and my mercy shall be no more. I am still lifting kingdoms and warriors of my word. They will stand firm in the faith. They will proclaim my instructions. They will bring more souls to my kingdom, and their rewards are with me as I the Lord descend to earth.

Never be discouraged about the temptation, the accusation, and the tools the enemy would bring upon you. Call on me in times of prayers and I the Lord will help you and give you victory. I the sovereign Lord never changes. I am that I am.

Do not be ignorant of the devices of the devil and his ways because I have given you the Holy Spirit as a guide. He would reveal unto you the truths and deception is about to blow up in these wicked times.

I the Lord have spoken, and nothing can change my words. I the Lord have seen all your pains and persecutions, but if only you called on me, I would listen and come to your aid.

I see all the accusations, which people strike on you and even among my people accuse you of your faith and faithfulness in me, but I the Lord, am your defender and your motivator. Always seek me in times of trouble and pains; never refuse to ask me because I know all. Never rely on your strength because your strength would fail you. Many have fallen because they refused to call on me.

They rejected me and followed the deceitful ones but remember that it is never too late to call on me because my love and grace endures forever. I am the complete expression of love.

I will forever be on your side if you do not bring grieve to my spirit because if you reject my voice, you bring grieve and allow Satan to decide for you.

I would never lead you astray. I would never let you beg in life because you are among the royal priesthood and you are a chosen generation.

All you have to do is to seek me first, not any other thing. Seek my kingdom and walk in my steps of righteousness, I would give unto you all you need, and you would prosper in your ways.

Remember that I am love myself, and my spirit leaves in you. I expect you too to love all those who hate you and curse you. Feed those who come to you even if that is your last bread. All these people can be your enemies and those you do not know. What would profit you if you love only those who love you?

Prepare to sacrifice all you have to save my lost sheep's because when I see them without a shepherd. I feel great pain in my heart. Remember that your labour of love would never be vain because my reward is with me. I am preparing a beautiful place for you all.

Never and ever rely on and trust in what you have, never underestimate the poor. Visit them when they are in distress, motivate them when they are depressed. Feed them when they are hungry.

Visit them in prisons and the hospitals, in the remote villages and various places, for if you do unto them, you do unto me.

Make my words known to them and tell them of my love and my eternal kingdom. Let them know what I have prepared for them and assure them I love them all because I the Lord fearfully and wonderfully created everybody in my image and after my likeness.

Woe unto you who despise these and rather discourage and bring them to destruction. For it was this reason I made them and made you different so that all might see my glory and reasons for humanity.

I am not pleased when you try to satisfy men than instead of looking at me. My time, ways, and my thoughts are not the same as you reason because I the Lord is pleased among those who will be servants in my house.

The greatest among you shall be the humble, the one who listens to my Spirit and obeys my Word."
