Mysteries in the season of Worship

- What happens in the realms of the Spirit when we worship God from our heart?

NOTE: This is my personal experience with the Holy Spirit in the Spiritual realm. Your experience might be the same or different from mine because of the level of our relationship with the Holy Spirit, spiritual maturity, anointing, spiritual gifts, mantle, and divine assignment.

This is a personal revelation I received from the Lord while I was in the mood of worship. It is an open vision; I wrote as inspired by the Holy Spirit while worshipping God from my heart in my room.

I have realized about God that, when I humble myself and depend on His righteousness, He reveals part of Himself to me. When I worship and pray sincerely from my heart, I receive divine feedback.

The moment I begin to depend on my righteousness, sanctification, and holiness, the Holy Spirit becomes jealous of me, and temporally lives me to the attack of the enemy. God allows the enemy to attack me for some time because He wants me to depend on Him.

One thing I do in my spiritual life is to worship God from my heart, fast, and pray when my spiritual strength begins to drain. When you are growing in the Lord, the Holy Spirit begins to give you some burden.

For example, you will feel like fasting and praying every day.

Other times you will have a desire to feed on the Word (Holy Bible). It has become part of my life. I don't often sleep, especially in the midnight hour. The Holy Spirit always wakes me up to either pray, worship, read, or write.

You must know about the Holy Spirit that if you want the holy angels to minister a sacred song to you in the Spirit, worship God in the middle of the night, especially between 3:00 am, and 5:00 am.

The holy angels have ministered several sacred songs to me in the spiritual realm after I worshipped and praised Him in this hour. If you want God to assign special angels to you, fast and pray.

In the realms of the Spirit, there is no time. Something we can use 1,000 years to do in the earth realm, in the realms of the Spirit, the spiritual forces can use a microsecond to perform it.

The only measurement (speed) I can compare with on earth is the speed of thoughts, the speed of light, or the fastest bullet in a sniper's rate.

From my experience in the Spiritual realm concerning angelic beings, both holy and unholy, the ones I encountered in the Spirit don't walk; they run. Anytime you feel fearful in your environment, it means there is an evil spirit about to attack you or a holy angel whose holiness surpasses your holiness.

If you are fearful in your heart or environment for no reason, it means your spirit or soul is in danger, or someone connected to you is in danger. Pray in the Spirit or enter the courts of Heaven through worship and praises and make declarations using God's promises.

In Spirit, I often see myself flying like an eagle overseeing the activities of countries, cities, and towns.

- What happens in the realms of the Spirit when we worship God from our heart?

From my personal experience in the Spiritual realm.

A great stream of a river opens in heaven's gates and begins to flow to our jurisdiction. The river sanctifies our jurisdiction and breaks anything that limits us from connecting with God.

At this point, evil spirits will manifest as birds to monitor us from a distance. When you fall prey to Satan and his minion's devices while worshipping, the demons put stumbling blocks on your path to God. This will cut your spirit from the stream of the Holy Spirit.

In the mood of Spirit-filled worship, the evil powers in your house (family) will be disturbed, and their plans against you will turn into foolishness.

The angels of God begin to break the chains of death and set those connected to you free because you worshipped God from your heart.

In the Spirit, the Holy Spirit moves with unstoppable jealousy to fight them that hate your course and become enemy to those that hate you without reason.

In the Spirit, the Heavenly Father turns into a lion, while the son turns into a lamb ready to defend you. The holy angels of God gather as an army at the prison gate of the dark kingdom and war against them without mercy.

In the Spirit, the kingdom of darkness shakes and becomes confused because they will not understand what is going in your life.

Some wicked demons will try to attack you while you are in the mood of worship by projecting destructive arrows to disconnect you.

If you switch off while worshipping, the dark kingdom becomes stable for some seconds and begins to investigate the course of the confusion. The demons will find out it is you, the worshipper, that caused the confusion.

At this point, the kingdom of darkness will put a unique tag on you by sending the marine spirits to lure you into sexual sin and lustful activities. If your spiritual armour is intact, the evil spirits will not be able to attack you. In the Spirit, the demons will use those close to you to break your spiritual armour while worshipping.

If the demons are unable to break you through your loved ones and those connected to you, they will use the things you love and hate most in your life to break your spiritual armour.

Remember these activities will be happening in the spiritual realm while you are worshipping God from your heart. In the Spiritual realm, when your tears come out of your eyes while worshipping God, it becomes a seed the holy angels will use to beautify your mansion in the Celestial City.

If you fall to the ground and cries profusely in the mood of worship, the holiness of the Trinity becomes ten thousand times brighter than the sun in the Celestial City.

When this happens, some special angels put a unique garment on you and put a seal that looks like the colour red. This seal calls special angels of war to protect you in the spiritual realm. Anyone that tries to oppose you receives a quick attack in the Spirit because of the seal on your garment.

If you are worshipping God just for fun, recognition, or for performance sake, the holy angels of God stand there watching you in amazement. They talk to themselves, what is this person doing, does he understand our King (Christ Jesus)?

In the Spirit, minions of the devil will be watching you with wrath and at the same time with laughter (mockery) because they know your worship is not making any impact.

Some demons will rush towards you with anger to attack you in the Spirit, but a white line will stop these demons from attacking you.

I asked the Lord why the demons couldn't harm the performing worshipper; then the Heavenly Father immediately responded to me, saying the lamb's blood is speaking for the worshipper.

In the Spirit, an army (archangels of God) surrounds the true worshippers following the worshipper's performance. Those worshipping from their heart receives a divine covering from the curses of the devil. Those worshipping with hypocrisy received curses from demons.

In the Spirit, the Holy Spirit will prompt the performing worshipper to stop faking the worship because some true worshippers and saints are among the congregation.

In the Spirit, if the worshipper is Spirit-filled or sensitive to the Holy Spirit, he will repent and switch to the Spirit.

As soon the performing worshipper switches to true worship, the atmosphere begins to change because, at this hour, the Holy Spirit will turn into flames of fire to charge the place with God's power and presence.

The yokes and burdens of the people begin to break as the angels of war enter the worshippers' families and those connected to the worshipper, free from demonic captivity.

The stronger the worship, the mightier the anointing rains on the archangels to fight stronger and wicked demons.

Chapter Two

Discerning Spiritual Activities

Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:7 KJV

Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

Jeremiah 33:3 KJV

These are some revelations the Holy Spirit brought to my attention when I was fellowshiping with Him through prayers. These revelations will help you to be vigilant (See 1 Peter 5:8-9).

You will be more active in the spirit if you study and apply the wisdom keys. Apostle Paul makes us understand that we must not be ignorant of the enemy's devices lest he takes advantage of us (See 2 Corinthians 2:11).

- How to know if God's angels and the Holy Spirit are around your jurisdiction.
- A refreshing Wind

You will feel a unique, refreshing air in that place. Sometimes it is the Holy Spirit. I remember in one of my teaching services at the university; As I led the students in prayers, a mighty and refreshing wind entered the lecture hall. One of the female students told me that anytime I teach God's Word, she feels the Holy Spirit's presence.

- Special Angels

God assigns special angels to you in the realms of the spirit when He graduates you in the spiritual realm. If you want to graduate to a higher level in the Spirit, consistently fellowship with the Holy Spirit through anointed Christian songs, fasting, and prayers, Constance feeding on God's Word, and embark on the great commission.

If you follow these wisdom keys, you will see a tremendous upgrade in your Christian life. You will attract angels with higher authority and power. I recommend you read my series of books if you want to sprout in the Spirit.

- Strange Movement

The angels of God move before you with incredible speed to prepare the way for you. Mostly, the angels of God take the lead to destroy the plans of the enemy and fight evil spirits that will try to hinder you in the assignment if you are active to the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

I remember I was about to take a shower when I was living in my father's house. Suddenly I saw a strange movement that looked like a light. Some angels went before me, and some were following me. I could discern that God has assigned a new level of angels to protect me from the wicked ones.

Another time, I saw an angel of God move ahead of me when I was about to meet a lecturer in his office. My guardian angel took the lead because he had to make some transactions before reaching the lecturer in his office.

By the grace of God, I have seen angels around spiritual leaders during the prayer session. Most often, the angel of God stands strictly behind the leader of the church. Guardian angels stand at your side; they don't talk; they monitor those around you.

- How to discern evil spirits
- Demons of confusion

Some particular demons hinder Christians from praying, especially group prayers. Most often, they stand at the junction leading to the prayer meeting. They project arrows of discouragement when you try to enter the prayer field. If you are not stable in the Spirit, you will not enter the prayer field to pray.

The arrows of the demons will encourage you to enjoy the carnal activities and ignore the prayer meeting. You need strong faith to break this arrow. Your spirit can break this arrow in the spiritual realm if your love for God is greater than anyone's else love.

- The spirit of death

This wicked spirit sends the spirit of fear and confusion to manipulate you before he strikes. This spirit will most often torment you emotionally and make you feel unloved, isolated, and hopeless. It will make you doubt the promises of God recorded in God's Word (Holy Bible). It will further isolate you from people that can help you spiritually, emotionally, and physically.

You will sense death and strange occurrences when the spirit of death is at work. To break this spirit, turn on your sound system and play anointed gospel songs (especially Christian praises). If you don't have a sound system, use your phone.

Be on 🔥fire🔥 for God!

Insert your earpiece into your phone and soak into Christian praises. Confess the promises of God recorded in the Holy Bible. Declare these promises from the deepest part of your heart and act on the Word. You can declare it several times until it becomes part of your soul and spirit.

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

Psalm 118:17 KJV

You can also declare and personalize Psalm 91 for yourself. Get my books, “How to Counter Attack the spirit of death” and “How to Conquer the spirit of death.” for a more profound revelation.

Please read my article, How to Conquer the spirit of death for wisdom keys.

- Smelly Odour

Another sign to discern evil spirits is that you will suddenly sense a smelly odour in the place. Most often, the smelly odour is accompanied by fear and discomfort in your spirit and soul. There are two ways to deal with it. The first key is to vacate that place or declare the Word of God. Declare this scripture with absolute faith.

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn.

This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

Isaiah 54:17 KJV

Anytime you sleep or get to the evening, and you sense fear, an evil spirit is present. Most often, it is the spirit of death. To break the stronghold, confess your sins and the sin of your loved ones, and soak yourself and your loved one into the blood of Jesus Christ by faith. Charge the atmosphere with anointed praises and worship.

Declare God's Word and fellowship with the Holy Spirit. If the evil spirit persists after applying this key, embark on fasting and prayers. Get my book, “How to Worship God in Spirit and Truth” for a more profound revelation.

PRAYER OF SALVATION (CONFESS THIS PRAYER WITH ALL YOUR HEART)

Heavenly Father, I come to you in the name of Jesus Christ, please forgive me of all my sin and wash me by the blood of Jesus Christ,

I confess Jesus Christ as my Lord and personal Saviour. I will follow and love you with all my heart.

Amen.
